

EVERYTHING

...yes EVERYTHING TO KEEP YOU IN FUN!

A DOUBLE PLEASURE! . . . Dining decisions are made easier for Miss Jacqueline Davis (left) and Mrs. Harvey B. Spelman, Jr., of Hollywood Riviera, as general-manager Berk MacPherson helpfully recommends the Marineland Restaurant fish and steak dishes exhibited by Chef Dutch Holland. Seafood and meat specialties are prepared at George M. Foster's establishment with equal artistry.

Children's Theater Planned For New Recreation Center

Plans for a Children's Theater were unveiled as city officials announced the group's first production May 18.

Harry B. Van Bellehem, director of recreation, said the program follows completion of a $150,000 recreation center in which productions will be staged.

"This is a long-sought dream come true," said Van Bellehem.

The center, opened last month on a site adjoining Torrance Civic Center, will be headquarters for the youth drama workshop. "The Emperor's New Clothes," an Anderson fairy tale adapted to stage presentation by Charlotte Chorprenning is scheduled as the initial production.

Featured in the theater program will be instruction in acting, stagecraft, and scenery production. Youngsters participating will be under tutelage of experienced instructors, Van Bellehem said, with specialized training eventually made possible through a projected inventory of stage and dramatics equipment.

Casting for the first production will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday in the Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd. Children 9-18 years are eligible. John Lankford is director.

LOCAL BROADCASTER . . . A radio program featuring country and western music originates in Torrance Monday through Saturday from 6:30 to 8 p.m. It's the Al Ryfle Show which is broadcast from the showroom of Vel's Ford at 20900 Hawthorne Ave. The program on KFOXX, a Long Beach radio station, is now in its fifth year. Ryfle is new car sales and advertising manager at Vel's. (Herald Photo)
